AMENDED COUNTER-COMPLAINT

Counter-Plaintiff, VIRGINIA W. GRAVLIN ("GRAVLIN"), on behalf of herself, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby sues Counter-Defendants, BANK OF AMERICA, N.A. ("BOA"), and REVERSE MORTGAGE SOLUTIONS, INC. ("RMS"), and all facts being extant and material hereto alleges:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

- This is a Counter-Complaint for damages in excess of Fifteen Thousand ($15,000.00) Dollars.
 - 2. Counter-Plaintiff, VIRGINIA W. GRAVLIN, is, in all respects, sui juris.
- 3. The Counter-Defendant, BOA, is a North Carolina corporation authorized to do business and is doing business in Palm Beach County, Florida.

- 4. The Counter-Defendant, RMS, acting in its own capacity and its capacity as agent or servant of BOA, is a corporation, authorized to do and is doing business in Palm Beach County Florida.
- 5. In or around the summertime of 2008, Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff, GRAVLIN, called in response to a television ad by Robert Wagner concerning reverse mortgages, and she subsequently received a phone call from Russell Tunick, who claimed to be registered with First Financial Bank.
- 6. Mr. Tunick ultimately advised GRAVLIN that, based on the tax appraised value of her home, GRAVLIN would receive approximately $140,000.00 after the remaining, current mortgage of $144,000.00 was paid off.
- 7. Sometime in or around February, 2009, a teleconference occurred at GRAVLIN'S homeowner's insurance agent's, the Celedinas Agency, office where the participants discussed and confirmed that the required homeowner's insurance premium of approximately $1,567.00, to be withheld in the reverse mortgage closing, would be sent to the Celedinas Agency on the date of the closing.
- 8. After that call, GRAVLIN had more calls with First Financial Group regarding her application for a reverse mortgage, including when and where a closing would take place. After speaking to Mr. Tunick, GRAVLIN was reassured by him that everything was in order and that she would be further notified of the details for a closing.
- 9. Shortly thereafter, two (2) individuals visited GRAVLIN at her home with blank documents that they represented to be the application for the reverse mortgage loan. These individuals could not produce any identification proving that they were associated with First Financial Group or a reverse mortgage loan, but they advised GRAVLIN that they represented First Financial. GRAVLIN asked to take the blank documents to an attorney for proper review and approval; however, the individuals would not permit that. Instead, they insisted that GRAVLIN sign a number of documents, and then they asked GRAVLIN to sign a blank HUD-1

Closing Statement, which contained no figures. When GRAVLIN expressed concern over signing a blank HUD-1, she was advised that it was just an application and was for the government, thus, it was safe.

- 10. GRAVLIN has now received, through discovery propounded herein, copies of that application paperwork, dated March 20, 2009. That application shows that GRAVLIN'S home had an "Estimate of Appraised Value" of $386,000.00. (Exhibit "A").
- 11. Although, as noted above, GRAVLIN had made multiple requests for the title company's contact information, she never received any correspondence relating to the date, time, or the location for the closing of the reverse mortgage. Unbeknownst to her, the HUD-1 was fraudulently completed when the closing took place in New York, at Legacy Abstract Title Company, a licensed and appointed agent of Westcor Land Title Insurance Company, without her presence, apparently on the same date that the two aforementioned individuals visited her at her home in Jupiter, Florida to obtain her signature on the application paperwork, as that application shows a March 20, 2009 date.
- 12. This is so because, as noted above, the blank HUD-1 Closing Statement that GRAVLIN signed was fraudulently filled in on that same March 20, 2009 date. Moreover, the HUD-1 was filled in with figures that were never reported to GRAVLIN, and it was submitted by Legacy Abstract Title Company as a final and valid Closing Statement. Certainly, GRAVLIN did not have the opportunity to dispute or agree to the charges enumerated in the completed HUD-1 Closing Statement, since the alleged closing occurred at an undisclosed location in New York State on the same day GRAVLIN apparently applied for the reverse mortgage in Florida, both on March 20, 2009.
- 13. Upon subsequent review of the purported HUD-1 Closing Statement document, it is also evident that that the name of the reverse mortgage institution was not First Financial; instead, the name on the falsified HUD-1 Closing Statement was GUARDIAN FIRST FUNDING, which would later be changed to URBAN FINANCIAL GROUP. Curiously, the companies kept the same address of ONE PENN PLAZA, New York City. Indeed, the CEO of Guardian First Funding, Mr. David Peskin, is also President of Urban Financial Group.

- 14. Further review of the closing documents shows that all required signatures were photocopied, forged, or substituted completely, as GRAVLIN was in her Florida home for the entire month of March, 2009, where she applied for the reverse mortgage, on the same date that she allegedly signed these closing documents in New York.
- 15. On or about March 25, 2009, five (5) days post-closing of the reverse mortgage, GRAVLIN'S banking institution, Wachovia Bank, notified her that they were foreclosing on the loan as they had not been informed that the reverse mortgage had taken place. Further, GUARDIAN FIRST FUNDING, and/or Legacy Abstract Title paid $188,000.00 to Wachovia Bank to satisfy that mortgage, which reflected the original amount of that mortgage instead of the current amount due as GRAVLIN had made 10 years of mortgage payments, approximately $144,000.00.
- 16. Further regarding the fraudulent, supposed closing that allegedly took place in New York, GRAVLIN was never informed of the date, time or physical location. Conversely, GRAVLIN was originally instructed that the closing was to take place in her home or at an attorney's offices in nearby Jupiter, Florida. However, no agent or officer ever contacted her to finalize a closing.
- 17. As a result, GRAVLIN contacted Mr. Tunick to advise him that the mortgage lender was initiating a foreclosure action, at which point Mr. Tunick advised that the closing had already taken place and the Wachovia mortgage had been satisfied, and further that the Celedinas Insurance Agency company would be sent the above-noted $1,567.00 homeowner's insurance premium payment via check.
- 18. Thereafter, it was discovered that Mr. Tunick was found to be holding himself out as a mortgage broker even though he was unlicensed. Indeed, upon information and belief, Mr.

Tunick blatantly lied to GRAVLIN regarding all aspects of the financial reimbursement of the alleged reverse mortgage.

- 19. Subsequent investigation has revealed that Legacy Abstract Title Company and its principals and agents were, on July 8, 2009, less than three months after the events recounted in the above paragraphs of this complaint, indicted by the State of New York, for conduct eerily similar to what had occurred towards Plaintiff.
- 20. Indeed, Legacy Abstract Title Company and its principals and agents were accused of forging closing documents, receiving into their title company escrow accounts closing funds from the banks that were, according to the fraudulent closing documents, supposed to go to the sellers of the properties. Instead, Legacy Abstract Title Company and its principals and agents apparently re-directed these funds to shell accounts controlled by the other indicted co-conspirators. Legacy Abstract Title Company and its principals and agents were accused of representing buyers and sellers at the sham closings, and further accused of failing to meet or communicate with their so-called clients until the day of the closings, did not negotiate closing or contract terms, and generally betrayed their clients' interests.
- 21. Attorney Marc Zirogiannis, the principal of Legacy Abstract Title, on October 24, 2009, pled guilty to Grand Larceny and was permanently disbarred.
- 22. The alleged note and mortgage dated the same date as the application, March 20, 2009, show that World Alliance Financial was the mortgagee, instead of either Guardian First Funding or Urban Financial. Mr. David Peskin is also the co-founder and COO of World Alliance Financial.
- 23. Further, although the "Estimate of Appraised Value" of GRAVLIN'S home was $386,000.00, and the aforesaid fraudulent HUD-1 does not show any figure in excess of $233,684.20, such alleged mortgage and note indicates that the principal amount of the reverse mortgage on GRAVLIN'S home was $579,000.00. However, that mortgage and note were not provided to GRAVLIN at any time until they were attached to the instant foreclosure complaint.

- 24. Even though the Defendants have now produced, sub judice, what is alleged to be the original note and mortgage for $579,000.00, in fact, on July 15, 2009, one week after the aforesaid indictment of Legacy Abstract Title and its principals and agents, Joanne Davis, an employee of Westcor Land Title Insurance, filed, in the Public Records for Palm Beach County, an "Affidavit of Interest", asserting that the $579,000.00 mortgage in favor of World Alliance Financial had been lost.
- 25. Although GRAVLIN does not know exactly when the Defendant RMS assumed the mortgage servicing duties in regard to the aforesaid reverse mortgage, she received a Monthly Statement in September 2009, which has the name of World Alliance Financial; however, the address on the Monthly Statement is RMS' address.
- 26. That September, 2009 Monthly Statement indicates that the amount of her "Original Principal Limit" was $242,408.00, and her "Beginning Loan Balance" was $233,684.20, not $579,000.00. Inexplicably, the Monthly Statement shows a "Credit Line" of $0.00. (Exhibit "B").
- 27. Despite Mr. Tunick's assurances, and despite the fact that Celedinas Agency had sent a bill for the Homeowner's Insurance premium to World Alliance Financial in March, 2009, in July 2009 and August 2009, World Alliance Financial sent letters to GRAVLIN asserting that it did not have confirmation of her homeowner's insurance. Subsequently, and up until at least March 2015, RMS continued to send such letters to GRAVLIN.
- 28. Subsequently, in 2009, GRAVLIN received a telephone call informing her that Guardian First Funding had no confirmation of homeowners insurance. She then immediately contacted Mr. Tunick who again assured her that the funds for her homeowners insurance had been paid at the closing. She was then advised that Guardian First Funding could not reach the Legacy Abstract Title Company and there did not appear to be any such check.
- 29. Since no funds had been forwarded from the closing to pay the premiums for her homeowners insurance, a gap in coverage had been created. Even though such situation had been wholly created by one or more of the various parties mentioned above, but not Gravlin, RMS force placed insurance on her home, and began charging GRAVLIN approximately $7,700.00 a year for forced placed insurance with Lloyd's of London, a non U.S. company, far in excess of the $1,567.00 premium for her own homeowner's coverage.

- 30. Immediately after GRAVLIN learned that such a gap in homeowner's insurance coverage had been created because no monies had been forwarded to Celedinas Agency as promised, GRAVLIN herself obtained new homeowners' insurance and has remained current on all homeowner's insurance payments since that time.
- 31. GRAVLIN repeatedly attempted to communicate to RMS that she maintained insurance on her home, and to communicate that the gap in coverage was created, as discussed above by others, to no avail.
- 32. As early as August 2011, RMS recognized that no money had been forwarded to Celedinas Agency as promised by its predecessors in interest, since that month, it presented a claim against Westcor Land Title Insurance in that regard. (Exhibit "C")
- 33. On December 26, 2012, RMS, as the servicer of the aforesaid note and mortgage, caused the instant foreclosure action to be instituted against GRAVLIN. By virtue of its aforesaid claim to Westcor Land Title it had presented in August 2011 (Exhibit "C"), it is certain that RMS, before causing such suit to be filed, failed to acknowledge to GRAVLIN, that any lapse in homeowner's insurance was caused by its predecessors in interest. Moreover, it did not address GRAVLIN'S concerns, and certainly ignored and/or did nothing to verify any of the supporting facts and circumstances, detailed hereinabove, prior to filing such suit, and especially did nothing to determine:
 - A) Why the application, HUD-1, and monthly statements it had issued only shows a maximum indebtedness of $242,408.00, whereas the letter, dated December 20, 2012, attached to its complaint asserts an amount, due and owing of $309,715.23, but the body of the complaint, at paragraph 7, states that the principal amount of the note and mortgage is $249,566.98, yet the attached mortgage and note shows the aforesaid amount of $579,000.00;

- B) Reconciling the enormous discrepancy between the HUD-1 and the $579,000.00 mortgage amount, including an attempt to determine where and how funds for $579,000.00 of indebtedness were distributed, located, and held, and why, even as early as August 2009, the credit line available to GRAVLIN was $0.00;
- C) Verifying that the named plaintiff of the foreclosure action, at the time, had standing to bring such action.
- 34. In that regard, in addition to all of the above, the four (4) corners of Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant's Complaint raise serious suggestions of fraud and misrepresentation as the Fixed Rate Note Closed End (Home Equity Conversion) ("the Note") (attached as Exhibit "A" to Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant's Complaint ("BOA's Complaint")) and two (2) Assignments of Mortgage (attached as Composite Exhibit "C" to BOA's Complaint), and the two undated allonges, are believed to be false and inaccurate.
- 35. In particular, "UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY", pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.110(b), an individual named "Debbie Sims" signed as the "Asst. Secretary" for "Nationstar Mortgage LLC d/b/a Champion Mortgage Company" (hereinafter "CHAMPION") on "11/5/12", and also signed as the "Asst. Secretary" for "MORTGAGE ELECTRONIC REGISTRATION SYSTEMS INC., AS NOMINEE FOR BANK OF AMERICA, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, ITS SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS" on November 5, 2012. See BOA's Verified Complaint to Foreclose Home Equity Conversion Mortgage with attachments filed December 26, 2012.
- 36. Certainly, Ms. Simms could not truthfully swear "UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY" that she was the Assistant Secretary to CHAMPION on November 5, 2012, while simultaneously serving as the Assistant Secretary for BANK OF AMERICA, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION on the exact same day.
- 37. Moreover, on April 29, 2015, Ms. Sims reappeared to sign another purported Assignment of Mortgage as part of Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant's Motion to Substitute Party Plaintiff, and this time Ms. Simms held herself out a second time as the Assistant Secretary for Nationstar Mortgage LLC d/b/a Champion Mortgage Company. This Assignment of Mortgage was prepared by McCalla Raymer, LLC, which is the firm of record for Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant.

- 38. Of equal concern, within the four (4) corners of BOA's Complaint is Joanne M. Davis' involvement with the matters before this Court. First, the Fixed Rate Mortgage ("Mortgage") (attached as Exhibit "B" to BOA's Complaint) shows written X's (or striking) through World Alliance Financial Corporation's information, which is replaced by handwriting showing Ms. Davis as the agent for "Westcor Land Title Ins." at "19760 Castlewood Dr. Jupiter, FL 33458".
- 39. The Mortgage reflects the date March 20, 2009; however that very document shows Teresa Bennigan and Joanne M. Davis as alleged witnesses to Ms. Gravlin's signature, which signatures were all notarized by Joanne M. Davis on September 2, 2009.
- 40. Regarding the Assignments of Mortgage (attached as Composite Exhibit "C" to BOA's Complaint), the concerns related to Ms. Sims' role with respect to the issue discussed supra. is not the only problem. Instead, the April 29, 2010 supposed Assignment of Mortgage was signed by the well-known and recognized "robo-signor" Bryan Bly, as Vice President of World Alliance Financial Corp., and notarized by Christopher Jones, whom is also a known "robo-signor". Finally, the document was prepared by Jessica Fretwell, another "robo-signor". Indeed, all three (3) of these individuals worked for National Title Clearing, and these individuals and their business came under severe scrutiny following the deposition of Ericka Lance, Senior President of Administration for National Title Clearing in a 4th Judicial Circuit, Duval County, Florida case, styled Bayview Loans Services, LLC v. Corey, 2009CA016234MA. (Exhibit "D")
- 41. As if the above was not enough, according to Exhibit "A" of BOA's Complaint, GRAVLIN purportedly executed the Note on March 20, 2009 for the benefit of Bank of America d/b/a World Alliance Financial Corporation ("World Alliance"), and the Mortgage (attached as Exhibit "B" to BOA's Complaint) shows that World Alliance was the alleged lender, with the Mortgage being given on March 20, 2009.

- 42. Curiously, BOA's Complaint at Exhibit "A" also includes two (2) fraudulent, undated allonges; the first, for the benefit of Nationstar Mortgage LLC. (or CHAMPION as defined supra.), whom allegedly received the Mortgage when it was "subsequently assigned to Plaintiff" refers to a Note/Loan dated March 12, 2009, and the second also undated allonge, refers to a Note/Loan dated March 20, 2009, is for the benefit of World Alliance, while the second is dated March 12, 2009 See paragraph 3 of BOA'S Complaint. (Emphasis added.)
- 43. Undoubtedly, Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant could not have assigned a secondary allonge that pre-dates the original Note and first allonge, and, even if it could, neither allonge can be valid unless there is proof of the date that it was executed, and, the signor of the original instrument (i.e. the Note) agreed to the content expressed in the allonge since the proponent of this evidence, the Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant, asks this Court to consider the allonge(s) as part of the Note itself. Consequently, the four (4) corners of BOA's Complaint show that the authenticity and veracity of both allonges must be in question because, inter alia, the March 12, 2009 (or second) allonge: (1) pre dates the Note and first allonge; (2) already indicates and ensues a prior assignor; and (3) is not notarized.
- 44. Finally, in regards to the legality of the Assignment of Mortgages, the first purported Assignment of Mortgage (attached to BOA's Complaint as Composite Exhibit "C"), purports to convey the subject Mortgage from World Alliance Financial Corporation to BOA, and that document was recorded in the Palm Beach County Official Records Book 23824 Page 1916 on May 3, 2010. The second purported Assignment of Mortgage (also attached as Composite Exhibit "C" to BOA's Complaint) evidences that it was prepared by McCalla Raymer, LLC the firm representing Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant in this case and allegedly conveys the subject Mortgage from BOA to CHAMPION on November 5, 2012 and was purportedly signed in Texas, but, a diligent search shows that, it was never recorded in the State of Florida, making it an invalid instrument. See Fla. Stat. 701.02. The third Assignment of Mortgage which was attached to Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant's Motion to Substitute Party Plaintiff, discussed supra.

was also prepared by McCalla Raymer, LLC – the firm representing Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant in this case – and purports to convey the subject Mortgage, on April 29, 2015, from CHAMPION back to BOA c/o Reverse Mortgage Solutions Incorporated, and, a diligent search shows that, it has not been recorded in the State of Florida; therefore, it is also legally invalid. See Fla. Stat. 701.02.¹

- 45. Both the two undated allonges, as well as all three (3) Assignments of Mortgage are invalid, misrepresentative and are not what they purport to be. Consequently, Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant has no legal claim to GRAVLIN'S property and has no valid rights under the Note or Mortgage.
- 46. As a result, GRAVLIN has been forced to retain the services of the undersigned counsel and has agreed to pay them reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.
- 47. All conditions precedent to bringing this action have occurred, been performed or are excused.

COUNT I – EQUITABLE ACCOUNTING

- 48. Plaintiff hereby adopts, realleges and reaffirms each and every allegation contained in paragraphs one (1) through forty seven (47) above as though fully set forth herein and further alleges:
- 49. Plaintiff most definitely contests the validity of the subject Note and Mortgage, moreover such Note and Mortgage between GRAVLIN and BOA itself as well as its various predecessors in interest, involves extensive or complicated accounts.
- 50. It is not clear that the remedy at law is as full, adequate and expeditious as it is in equity.

- 51. Further, because of the conduct of BOA itself, RMS, and their predecessors in interest have engaged in, GRAVLIN is unsure what amount BOA claims is due and owing on the Note and/or Mortgage.
- 52. Consequently, an equitable accounting should be conducted so that GRAVLIN can determine what economic damages, if any, inter alia, have been caused by BOA itself, RMS, and their predecessors in interest.

WHEREFORE, Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff, VIRGINIA W. GRAVLIN, prays that an accounting be had and taken under the direction of this Court to determine what is due and owing, if anything, as it relates to the subject Mortgage and GRAVLIN'S Note.

COUNT II - FRAUD

- 53. Plaintiff hereby adopts, realleges and reaffirms each and every allegation contained in paragraphs one (1) through forty seven (47) above as though fully set forth herein and further alleges: As set out in great detail above, BOA itself, RMS, as well as their predecessors in interest, have been guilty of numerous false statements, as well as numerous fraudulent omissions of fact.
- 54. Both the conduct and verbal statements detailed above, as well as the fraudulent allonges and assignments referenced above, are replete with fraudulent statements and omissions of material fact.
- 55. BOA itself, RMS, as well as their predecessors in interest, knew or should have known of the falsity of such verbal and written statements and omissions of material facts at the time they were made and at the time the documents were created, appended to pleadings herein, and filed sub judice.
- 56. Counter-Defendant/Plaintiff BOA itself, RMS, as well as their predecessors in interest, intended, by such fraudulent statements and omissions of material fact, to induce GRAVLIN to rely thereon, which she did to her great detriment.
 - 57. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants, BOA itself, RMS, as well as their predecessors in interest, fraudulent representations and omissions, the Plaintiff, GRAVLIN, suffered actual damages and reasonably foreseeable consequential and incidental damages including, but not limited to:

- a. The aforesaid $579,000 mortgage on her home;
- b. The fees, penalties, force placed insurance premiums, and other charges that are being sought from her in the instant foreclosure suit;
- c. Attorney's fees and costs she was forced to expend defending herself in the instant foreclosure suit as a result of the aforesaid wrongful acts;
- d. Loss of Use of such monies;
- d. Impairment of Credit;
- e. Extreme emotional distress and embarrassment

WHEREFORE, Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff, VIRGINIA W. GRAVLIN, demands judgment for fraud resulting in damages in excess of $15,000.00 against the Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant, BANK OF AMERICA, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION; and Counter-Defendant REVERSE MORTGAGE SOLUTIONS, INC., plus interest on all liquidated sums, costs and attorneys' fees, and demands a trial by jury for all issues so triable.

COUNT III – Violation of the Florida Consumer Collection Practices Act Against RMS

- 58. Plaintiff hereby adopts, realleges and reaffirms each and every allegation contained in paragraphs one (1) through forty seven (47) above as though fully set forth herein and further alleges:
- 59. This claim is brought against RMS on behalf of GRAVLIN for damages and injunctive relief on account of its collection practices in violation of the Florida Consumer Collection Practices Act, F.S. § 559.72.

- 60. In its business of collecting debts and in attempting to collect the debt, RMS has used the United States mail and postal services, telephones and other means and instrumentalities of interstate commerce.
 - 61. Fla. Stat. § 559.72(9) states, that in collecting consumer debts, no person shall:
 - (9) Claim, attempt, or threaten to enforce a debt when such person knows that the debt is not legitimate, or assert the existence of some other legal right when such person knows that the right does not exist.
- 62. RMS and GRAVLIN are "debtors" and "consumers" as defined by F.S. § 559.55(2).
 - 63. RMS is a "debt collector" as defined by F.S. §559.55(6).
- 64. The alleged debts of GRAVLIN are "consumer debts" as defined by F.S. §559.55(1), in that they are obligations or alleged obligations of a consumer to pay money arising out of a transaction in which the money, property, insurance, or services which are the subject of the transaction are primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.
- 65. RMS, acting as the assigned servicer of the Note, asserted in communications to GRAVLIN that she was required to pay for late fees, the costs and premiums for forced placed insurance, inspection fees, attorneys' fees and costs, as well as various charges under the misleading nomenclature as "corporate advance". RMS certainly knew, or in the exercise of even the slightest care, should have known, that its claims were not legitimate and that GRAVLIN was not under any legal obligation to pay for those sums.
- 66. RMS had actual knowledge that GRAVLIN did not owe the above-referenced amounts.
- 67. This intentional and knowing conduct by RMS constituted an improper debt collection practice In violation of the Florida Consumer Collection Practices Act, Fla. Stat. § 559.55, et seq. Specifically, this intentional and knowing conduct violated § 559.72(9), which makes it Illegal to "[c]lalm, attempt, or threaten to enforce a debt when such person knows that the debt is not legitimate, or assert the existence of some other legal right when such person knows that the right does not exist."

- 68. On account of the foregoing violations, GRAVLIN has been forced to retain the services of undersigned counsel, and has agreed to pay them a reasonable fee for their services, on a contingent fee basis.
- 69. Due to the violations of Florida law by RMS, as set forth above, GRAVLIN has been damaged and is entitled to an award of damages (actual and/or statutory) as well as declaratory and injunctive relief.

WHEREFORE, Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff, VIRGINIA W. GRAVLIN, demands judgment for actual and/or statutory damages and equitable relief against the Counter-Defendant REVERSE MORTGAGE SOLUTIONS, INC., plus interest on all liquidated sums, costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to Florida Statute § 559.77(2), and such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper. Additionally, GRAVLIN requests that REVERSE MORTGAGE SOLUTIONS, INC. be enjoined from any and all further illegal collection practices, and demands a trial by jury for all issues so triable..

COUNT III – ACTION PURSUANT TO FLORIDA STATUTE §772.104

Plaintiff hereby adopts, realleges and reaffirms each and every allegation contained in paragraphs one (1) through forty seven (47) above as though fully set forth herein and further alleges:

- 70. The aforesaid acts and omissions of BOA itself, RMS, and their predecessors in interest, comprise violations of several Florida Statutes, including Mortgage Fraud as defined by Florida Statute §817.545, as well as Florida Statute §772.103.
- 71. Due to the violations of such Florida Statutes by BOA itself, RMS, and their predecessors in interest, GRAVLIN has been damaged and is entitled to an award of damages for "threefold the actual damages sustained and, in any such action, is entitled to minimum damages in the amount of $200, and reasonable attorney's fees and court costs in the trial and appellate courts." WHEREFORE, Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff, VIRGINIA W. GRAVLIN, demands judgment for damages, pursuant to Florida Statute §772.104, including threefold her actual damages, in excess of $15,000.00, against the Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant, BANK OF AMERICA, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION; and Counter-Defendant REVERSE MORTGAGE SOLUTIONS, INC., plus interest on all liquidated sums, costs and attorneys' fees, and demands a trial by jury for all issues so triable.

COUNT IV – BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

- 72. Plaintiff hereby adopts, realleges and reaffirms each and every allegation contained in paragraphs one (1) through forty seven (47) above as though fully set forth herein and further alleges:
- 73. BOA, and RMS, each had a fiduciary duty to represent GRAVLIN'S interests as it related to the aforesaid Note and Mortgage.
- 74. For the reasons stated herein, BOA and RMS not only breached that fiduciary duty, but such breach was especially egregious under the circumstances, and constitutes a constructive fraud.
- 75. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants, BOA and RMS, egregious breach of their fiduciary duty to Plaintiff, tantamount to constructive fraud, the Plaintiff, GRAVLIN, suffered actual damages and reasonably foreseeable consequential and incidental damages including, but not limited to:
 - a. The aforesaid $579,000 mortgage on her home;
 - b. The fees, penalties, force placed insurance premiums, and other charges that are being sought from her in the instant foreclosure suit;
 - c. Attorney's fees and costs she was forced to expend defending herself in the instant foreclosure suit as a result of the aforesaid wrongful acts;
 - d. Loss of Use of such monies:
 - d. Impairment of Credit;

e. Extreme emotional distress and embarrassment

WHEREFORE, Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff, VIRGINIA W. GRAVLIN, demands judgment for breach of fiduciary duty in excess of $15,000.00 against the Defendants, BANK OF AMERICA, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, and Reverse Mortgage Solutions, Inc., plus interest on all liquidated sums, costs and attorneys' fees, and demands a trial by jury for all issues so triable.
