Alicia specializes in complex estate, gift, and GST tax planning for individuals and families with significant wealth, including generational wealth transfer strategies and business succession planning.

Her practice focuses on structuring and implementing complex estate plans that often include the use of Revocable Trusts and various Irrevocable Trusts (ILIT, IDGT, CLT, CRTs, and other similar structures), insurance planning, charitable giving strategies, and the creation and transfer of closely held business entities structured to optimize tax mitigation and protect wealth for the next generation. Alicia enjoys working with clients to develop strategies that minimize taxes, preserve wealth, and accomplishes the client's overall family planning goals and values.
