Alyse hits the ground running with a strong understanding of the complex needs facing elder law clients. As an elder law attorney, Verner has the benefit of years of experience in assisting firm clients with long-term care planning, Medicaid planning, and asset protection. Her current areas of focus include drafting estate planning documents and pleadings and motions in guardianship and probate matters, including contested guardianship and litigated probate cases.

Her skills as a technician are evident in her work as she strives to serve our clients who have found themselves in crisis situations. Her passion extends to her work on the Board of Directors with the Seniors First organization.
