Dear Applicant,

This correspondence serves as a formal notification concerning the trademark application identified below.

Mark Name: BAMBOO FRAGRANT RICE

Serial Number: 78184372

Application Filing Date: Nov. 12, 2002

You are hereby notified that circumstances have arisen which may affect the status, priority, and potential registration of the mark. Timely review and consideration of this matter is recommended.

Our records indicate that no response has been received with respect to prior communications issued to the contact information on file.

Given the extended period of inactivity associated with this matter, we note that competing interest in the mark has been identified.

Additionally, a subsequent application for a similar mark has been received, which may give rise to a potential conflict concerning priority and registration rights.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) has recently received a subsequent application for a similar mark, which may give rise to a potential conflict. Timely attention is essential to preserve your priority and avoid complications in the registration process.

If you intend to maintain your interest in the mark and preserve any available rights associated with the application, we encourage you to review this matter and provide your response at your earliest convenience.

Important Notice

- Competing interest in the mark has been identified
- A subsequent application for a similar mark has been received
- USPTO has received a conflicting or similar mark filing
- The matter remains under administrative review
- Timely response is recommended to maintain procedural consideration

If you require assistance or guidance concerning this matter, you may contact our office at your earliest convenience:
