Biography

Anthony focuses his practice on civil litigation, representing businesses and individuals from pre-suit claims through appeal. His practice includes the defense of premises liability, automobile liability, personal injury, real estate litigation, and ADA Title III website compliance matters.

He has represented a wide range of clients, including bus lines, trucking carriers, shippers, and entertainment and hospitality companies, providing strategic guidance in both routine and complex disputes. Anthony has secured favorable outcomes through strategic advocacy and successful motion practice, including dismissals and summary judgments.

Anthony also has appellate experience and has argued cases before appellate courts in New York and New Jersey.
