Biography

Anthony focuses his practice on general liability matters, including product liability, premises liability, motor vehicle accidents, construction defects, consumer fraud, subrogation, property damage, indemnification, environmental disputes, Dram Shop cases, labor and employment law, defamation, contract claims, and related litigation.

He is an experienced, dedicated, and results-driven attorney known for delivering strategic legal counsel and achieving successful outcomes for clients. Anthony has built a strong track record of success both inside and outside of the courtroom across a wide range of complex matters. He has extensive experience representing insurers, commercial property owners, trucking companies, contractors, manufacturers, and distributors in high-profile and multifaceted disputes.

Anthony is a frequent author on issues involving complex legal matters, and his relationship with clients extends beyond litigation. He ensures they remain informed about relevant case decisions, new laws, regulations, and emerging trends that may impact their business. Known for his ability to navigate challenging cases from inception through resolution with precision and confidence, Anthony earns the trust of clients and colleagues alike. He also provides valuable mentorship and guidance to colleagues.

Originally from Toms River, New Jersey, Anthony developed an early interest in the practice of law, which led him to earn a bachelor's degree in political science. A former collegiate athlete, he is a sports enthusiast who enjoys golf, soccer, and baseball. Anthony is also a musician and an avid outdoorsman.
