Biography

Dennis is an Associate with the firm and is part of the Litigation Practice Group. He has extensive experience in civil insurance defense. Prior to joining the firm, Dennis worked for a large insurance company, where he handled complex commercial litigation involving negligence, premises liability, and products liability claims. His experience also includes defending motor vehicle accident cases, No-Fault matters, and uninsured motorist claims.

Born and raised in Western New York, Dennis earned his bachelor's degree in political science, with a minor in sociology, from SUNY Geneseo. He went on to receive his Juris Doctor from Albany Law School.

Outside of the office, Dennis enjoys spending time with his family, friends, and his dog. An avid sports fan, he passionately supports the Buffalo Sabres and Buffalo Bills. He is also active in his community, volunteering for events at his church in Batavia, New York.
