Biography

Jenna is an Associate in the Firm's Buffalo office. She brings valuable industry insight to the firm's Litigation Practice Group, having served as counsel for a large national insurance company prior to joining the firm. In that role, she managed a high-volume docket of cases involving personal and commercial property and casualty policies, developing practical strategies to resolve matters efficiently while protecting her clients' interests. Jenna's legal experience also includes matters involving motor vehicle accidents, premises liability and construction accidents.

Jenna earned her Juris Doctor from SUNY Buffalo Law School. She also holds a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Mercyhurst University.

Outside of her legal career, Jenna loves spending time with her husband, two children and English Cream Golden Retriever.
