Biography

Stacey is a member of the Insurance Solutions Practice Group, where she advises clients on a wide range of coverage matters involving liability, property, additional-insured disputes, large losses, intellectual property, and extra-contractual exposures.

Before joining the firm, Stacey worked as a senior casualty claim representative and commercial lines underwriting supervisor for a New England insurer. She also clerked for the Hon. Lenore R. Gelfman in the Circuit Court for Howard County and practiced at a mid-size defense firm, handling matters in medical malpractice and personal auto. She maintains a P&C license and is pursuing her CPCU designation.

Stacey lives in Central Vermont with her husband, son, and her father. She currently serves on her town Selectboard as well as Vice Chair of the Development Review Board.
